

“Lord, I Don’t Know...”

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

“Who is this that darkens counsel
By words without knowledge?
Now gird up your loins like a man,
And I will ask you, and you instruct Me!
Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell Me, if you have understanding,
Who set its measurements? Since you know.
Or who stretched the line on it?
On what were its bases sunk?
Or who laid its cornerstone,
When the morning stars sang together
And all the sons of God shouted for joy? - Job 38:1-7

1. Read chapters 38 and 39.
2. In these chapters God is responding to Jobs complaints about Him. What question(s) that God is asking do you find the most convicting?
3. In Job 38:1-7, what does God ask Job to do?
4. What is meant by “gird up your loins as a man?”
5. In this passage God is putting Job in His place- explaining that he knows much less than he realizes. Has God ever had to do this with you? How?

6. The worst approach we can have towards God and His scriptures is having an attitude of “I know”, instead we should have an “I don’t know” attitude. What are some ways you can keep an attitude like this?

This Weeks Challenge:

“Jesus, You are so much bigger than me. Who am I to question You? Forgive me for every time I have. Show me how to stay humble in my approach to You and in all of my life. Amen”
