

How blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered!
How blessed is the man to whom the Lord does not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit! - Psalm 32:1-2

1. Read the entire chapter.
2. What is the importance/significance of verses 1-2?
3. How many people do you believe long for what David speaks of in these verses?
4. Read Romans chapter four. How does this relate?
5. Romans 4 speaks of justification through faith and not through the law. Have you come to the place in your walk that it is only through the blood of Jesus that you are credited as being righteous?
6. All desire to be righteous. The problem is when we try in our own strength we fail miserably. The ONLY hope we have is faith in Jesus and relying on His strength. In order to do this we need to recognize the need of a savior in our lives. Have you realized you are in need of a savior?

This Week's Challenge: "Jesus, I can't live my life. I am in desperate need of a Savior. Guide and take over my life. In Your name I pray- Amen."
